

Applying for a residence permit? Remember to bring your passport to the service point!

When you visit a service point,
you will need to show your passport.

Make sure that the passport is valid.

Your child or spouse must bring their passports to the service point as well, if they are applying with you.