Service of decisions on citizenship by publication

The Finnish Immigration Service announces as service by publication that the Finnish Immigration Service has made decisions on citizenship concerning the following parties to whom it has not been possible to serve the decisions.

You can get information about your decision from the general customer service number of the Finnish Immigration Service at 0295 419 600 from Monday to Friday at 9.00–16.00 until 1.10.2020.

You will be considered to have been notified of the decision in seven days from the publication of this notice. After that, you have 30 days to appeal the decision.

This service by publication will be available on the website of the Finnish Immigration Service for at least 37 days, after which it will be removed from the website.
