Changing status from permanent residence card to right of permanent residence for family member of a British citizen

① Use this form if you are a family member of a British citizen and you have earlier been issued with a permanent residence card. With this form, you can notify that you wish to get a residence card as proof of your right of permanent residence under the withdrawal agreement. If you are a British citizen, use the form "Brexit_3".

1. You can read instructions on making the application and on the processing fees and attachments at migri.fi/brexit/en
2. Each applicant fills in a separate form. Fill in the form carefully. Remember to sign the form. If any information is missing, this will delay the processing of the application and may lead to the application being rejected. The attachments needed for the application are listed in this form under "Attachments".
3. Submit the application at a service point of the Finnish Immigration Service. In some cases, you can also submit your application at a Finnish mission (embassy or consulate) abroad.
4. There is no application fee.

7. Processing of personal data

The Population Information System and your personal identity code	If the Finnish Immigration Service grants you right of residence under the withdrawal agreement, your personal information is by law usually recorded in the Population Information System. You will also be issued a personal identity code if you do not yet have one. The Population Information System is Finland's electronic population register. Its contents are available to all Finnish authorities. Some of the data can also be disclosed to private persons or entities. The register is kept by the Digital and Population Data Services Agency. The personal information in the register is stored permanently. A personal identity code is a means of identification used in Finland. No two persons can have the same personal identity code. The code consists of 11 characters and is based on your date of birth and your gender (example: 131052-308T). Being issued a personal identity code gives you no rights or obligations in Finland. You will usually need it when you contact public authorities, because it gives them access to your information in the Population Information System. Also, for instance employers, banks or phone operators may need to know your personal identity code. At this stage, the following personal data will be recorded in the Population Information System: your name, date of birth, gender, citizenship, native language, address and occupation. More information about the processing of personal data recorded in the Population Information System can be found in the privacy statement available at dvv.fi/en/pis-privacy-statement. You may also request a paper copy from the Finnish Immigration Service or from the Finnish mission (embassy or consulate) to which you return this application.
The UMA system	The information you have given on this form will be recorded in the electronic case management system (UMA) of the Finnish Immigration Service. The UMA system is used for processing, decision-making in and monitoring of matters governed by the Aliens Act and the Nationality Act. All documents related to the processing of your matter will be filed in the UMA system. More detailed information of the processing on your personal data and your rights related to the processing will be given on our web page migri.fi/dataprotection. If you wish, you can get a paper print of the statement when you submit your application.

8. Date and signature

I am applying for right of permanent residence for a family member under the withdrawal agreement, and hereby confirm with my signature that the details I have provided in this form and in the attachments are correct. I am aware that providing false personal information and false written documentation to the authorities is a punishable act in Finland according to law. Providing false information may result in rejection of the application or withdrawal of an existing permit, removal from the country and an entry ban to the Schengen area.

i A child who has turned 12 years of age as well as the child's both parents or guardians must sign the child's form. Alternatively, the written consent of one of the parents or guardians may be attached to the form.
