APPLICATION FOR PREVENTING THE CANCELLATION OF A RESIDENCE PERMIT

This form is for requesting that your residence permit will not be cancelled because of your residence abroad. There has to be a special or exceptional reason for your residence abroad. You must submit your application within two years of moving from Finland. If you have an EU residence permit (PE-U) granted by Finland and you reside within the European Union, you must submit your application within six years of moving from Finland.

A processing fee pursuant to the decree on fees will be charged for the application. The processing fee of 100 euros should be paid in advance to the Finnish Immigration Service's bank account FI50 5000 0121 5029 82. If you pay the fee abroad, please give the following information: Pohjola Bank Plc, BIC: OKOYFIHH and IBAN: FI50 5000 0121 5029 82. Write your name and the text "Application for preventing the cancellation of a residence permit" in the message field of the bank transfer. Attach a document on the payment to your application.

Send your application to the Finnish Immigration Service.
