RESIDENCE PERMIT APPLICATION – FOR SEASONAL WORK

This application form is for you if you are applying for a residence permit for seasonal work in Finland for 3–9 months. Your work must be seasonal and in a certain field of work. A list of these fields is available on the website of the Finnish Immigration Service at www.migri.fi. If you are applying for a residence permit for a period longer than six months, your employer must establish if there is available labour force in Finland or within the EU/EEA for the work in question. If your work is not seasonal or the season lasts longer than nine months, you must apply for a residence permit for an employed person (TTOL) using the form OLE_TY1.

Fill in the application carefully and sign it. If any information is missing, this will delay the processing of your application and may lead to your application being rejected. Ask your employer to fill in and sign the form TY6_plus. Attach it to your application with the other necessary attachments.

If you are applying for your first residence permit in Finland, submit your application to a Finnish mission (embassy or consulate) abroad. If you are applying for an extended permit, submit your application to a service point of the Finnish Immigration Service in Finland. Your application will be subject to a processing fee, as laid down in the government decree on fees.

A residence permit for seasonal work is always temporary. The permit is granted for a maximum of nine months within a 12-month period. If you are granted a residence permit for seasonal work, your family members may not apply for a residence permit in Finland on the basis of family ties.

If your seasonal work lasts for a maximum of three months, you do not need a residence permit.

- If you need a visa to enter Finland, apply for a visa at a Finnish mission (embassy or consulate).
- If you do not need a visa, request the Finnish Immigration Service to give you a certificate for seasonal work using the form TOD_P_KAUSI

9 Population register and personal identity code

When you are granted a residence permit by the Finnish Immigration Service, your personal information will by law in most cases be recorded in the Population Information System. You will also be issued a personal identity code.

The Population Information System is Finland's electronic population register. Its contents are available to all Finnish authorities. Some of the data can also be disclosed to private persons or entities. The register is kept by the Local Register Offices and the Population Register Centre. The personal information in the register is stored permanently.

A personal identity code is a means of identification used in Finland. No two persons can have the same personal identity code. The code consists of 11 characters and is based on your date of birth and your gender (example: 131052-308T). Being issued a personal identity code gives you no rights or obligations in Finland. You will usually need it when you contact public authorities, because it gives them access to your information in the Population Information System. Also for instance employers, banks or phone operators may need to know your personal identity code.

At this stage, the following personal information will be recorded in the Population Information System: your name, gender, date of birth and your citizenship as well as your mother tongue, address and occupation.

More information on the processing of personal data recorded in the Population Information System can be found in the Data Protection Description available at www.vrk.fi/en/data-protection. You may also request a paper copy from the Finnish Immigration Service or from the Finnish mission (embassy or consulate) to which you return this application.
