Residence permit application for other gainful employment or for pursuing a business

① Use this form to apply for a residence permit on a basis mentioned under section 'Grounds for the permit' when you are working for a Finnish employer or an employer operating in Finland.

1. For instructions on submitting the application, on processing fees and on the attachments required, see migri.fi/working-in-finland/applications.

2. Fill in the form carefully. Remember to sign the form. Incomplete information will delay the processing of your application and may lead to your application being rejected.

The attachments needed for the application are listed on this form under 'Attachments'.

3. Your employer must fill in a separate 'Terms of employment' form which must be attached to your application. You can speed up the processing of your application by submitting the form at the same time as you submit your application.

4. Submit your application at a Finnish mission (finlandabroad.fi) if you are abroad, or at a service point of the Finnish Immigration Service if you are in Finland.

5. Residence permit applications are subject to a fee. Pay the processing fee when you submit the application. We will not start processing your application before you have paid the processing fee.

13. Processing of personal data

Population Information System and personal identity code	By law, your personal information will usually be recorded in the Population Information System of Finland if the Finnish Immigration Service grants you a residence permit. You will also be issued a personal identity code. Population Information System is Finland's population register. It is electronic and its contents are available to all Finnish authorities. Some of the data may also be disclosed to private persons or entities. The register is controlled by the Digital and Population Data Services Agency and the State Department of Åland. The personal data in the register is stored permanently.

	A personal identity code is a means of identification used in Finland. No two persons can have the same personal identity code. The code consists of 11 characters and is based on your date of birth and your gender (example: 131052-308T). Being issued a personal identity code gives you no rights or obligations in Finland. You will usually need the code when you contact public authorities, because it gives them access to your information in the Population Information System. Even employers, banks or phone operators, for example, may need to know your personal identity code. At this stage, the following personal data will be recorded in the Population Information System: your name, date of birth, gender, citizenship, native language, address and occupation. Further information about the processing of personal data recorded in the Population Information System can be found in the privacy statement available at dvv.fi/en/data-protection. You may also request a paper copy from the Finnish Immigration Service or from the Finnish mission to which you return this application.
The UMA system	The information you have provided on this form will be recorded in the electronic case management system (UMA) of the Finnish Immigration Service. The UMA system is used for processing, decision-making in and monitoring of matters governed by the Aliens Act and the Nationality Act. All documents related to the processing of your matter will be filed in the UMA system. For further information on the processing of your personal data and your rights related to the processing, see migri.fi/data-protection. You can request a paper copy of the statement when you submit your application.

14. Date and signature

I am applying for a residence permit in Finland, and I hereby confirm with my signature that the details I have provided on this form and in the attachments are correct. I am aware that providing false personal information or false written documentation to the authorities is a punishable act under law in Finland. Providing false information may result in rejection of the application or withdrawal of an existing permit, removal from the country and an entry ban into the Schengen area.

i A child who has turned 12 years of age as well as the child's both parents or guardians must sign the child's form. Alternatively, the written consent of one of the parents or guardians may be attached to the form.
