How are you going to get a place to live?

Accommodation in use in Finland

Accommodation may be accommodation provided by a municipality or owned or rented on the private market. A written lease or sublease agreement, or a deed of sale in case of an owner-occupied home, is sufficient proof of accommodation. In case of a sublease agreement, the main tenant must have written permission from the owner to take a sub-tenant.

- I am aware that I must have accommodation in Finland within six (6) months of my application for a residence permit being filed and that I must submit written proof of my accommodation to a Finnish diplomatic mission or to the Finnish Immigration Service.
- I understand that failing to comply with the six(6)-month limit will not prevent the Finnish Immigration Service from making a decision in the matter and that not having accommodation may have a negative impact on the decision.

Please state whether there is any other purpose for your residence in Finland than that stated above which you wish to declare. ### 10 Population register and personal identity code

When you are granted a residence permit by the Finnish Immigration Service, your personal information will by law in most cases be recorded in the Population Information System. You will also be issued a personal identity code.

The Population Information System is Finland's electronic population register. Its contents are available to all Finnish authorities. Some of the data can also be disclosed to private persons or entities. The register is kept by the Local Register Offices and the Population Register Centre. The personal information in the register is stored permanently.

A personal identity code is a means of identification used in Finland. No two persons can have the same personal identity code. The code consists of 11 characters and is based on your date of birth and your gender (example: 131052-308T). Being issued a personal identity code gives you no rights or obligations in Finland. You will usually need it when you contact public authorities, because it gives them access to your information in the Population Information System. Also for instance employers, banks or phone operators may need to know your personal identity code.

At this stage, the following personal information will be recorded in the Population Information System: your name, gender, date of birth and your citizenship as well as your mother tongue, address and occupation.

More information on the processing of personal data recorded in the Population Information System can be found in the Data Protection Description available at www.vrk.fi/en/data-protection. You may also request a paper copy from the Finnish Immigration Service or from the Finnish mission (embassy or consulate) to which you return this application.
