4. Sufficient financial resources in Finland

① For the residence permit, you must have secure means of support. Secure means of support mean that you have sufficient financial resources for living in Finland. The income requirement is EUR 1,000 per month and EUR 12,000 per year for one adult. In other words, you must have at least EUR 12,000 for a residence of one year. The funds you need to have to meet the income requirement must be freely available to you, in your personal bank account, for instance. For more information about sufficient financial resources, see migri.fi/en/income-requirement.
